RNB RETAIL AND BRANDS

New CFO of RNB RETAIL AND BRANDS

RNB has previously announced that Stefan Danieli is leaving his position as CFO in the spring of 2015. Stefan will be succeeded by Kristian Lustin. Kristian is 44 years old and has an MBA from Uppsala University and is a chartered accountant.

Kristian Lustin has an extensive background in all aspects of financial management and most recently in a role as Group Financial Controller of Modern Times Group (MTG). Prior to that, he spent three years working as Group Finance Director of Munters during the time the company was listed. Kristian will join the Executive Committee of RNB Retail and Brands AB.

"It's very satisfying that we have managed to recruit a CFO with the broad and distinct skills that Kristian possesses," says Magnus Håkansson, President and CEO of RNB.
